MILT SESSIONS Squawks

SAYS RADIO COMMENT UNFAIR

KGB in Balboa Park

(Over K G B, Wednesday, 8 p. m., Sept. 3)

DAVID—I listened to the San Diego radio forum last Sunday evening at 6:30 when somebody phoned in a question asking Mr. Milton Sessions, of the Balboa Park board, whether he would get the contract for landscaping the north eastern part of the park where KGB wants to build a radio station.

DAD—Yes. I listened to that program, too. Milton Sessions said that he was against granting this request of KGB because it would interfere with future landscaping. He said he wants no buildings there.

FRED—But what DID Mr. Sessions reply to that question from the audience?

DD—Oh, he flew off the handle by pointing out that such an implication was out of the question because as long as he was on the board the city charter prevented him from getting the landscaping contract.

DAVID—But what's to prevent him from resigning in order to get the contract?

DAD—Nothing. He can stay on the park board and keep all improvements and public accommodations out of that section of the park and when the city finally appropriates money to improve the park, then, he can resign and bid for the contract.. It's perfectly legal.

DAVID—That's the way the dollar a year men do with the Federal Government?

DAD—Those boys don't even resign. They stay right at the public trough and steer all the fat contracts to their own crowd.

Sessions Didn't Think Fast Enough

Right after the broadcast, Milton Sessions called me on the station's phone: "This is Milton Sessions; your broadcast was very unfair to me, Mr. de Aryan. It was personal, prejudiced and uncalled for."

"Mr. Sessions that does not interest me at all. What concerns me is, can you legally get a contract to landscape the park if you resign your official position."

"But that is out of the question. No landscaping contract has ever been let by the park, all of it has always been done by the city, so you are prejudicing the public's mind against me with an insinuation."

"There you are mistaken, again. I have no personal interest in the matter. I merely took up where you left off, Sunday, when somebody had phoned the contract question to you. It's you who explained why you could not get the had phoned the contract question to you. It's you who explained why you could not get the contract and all I have done is, I show how you could still be on the park board and profit by keeping KGB out and then resign in time to get the landscaping contract, if and when."

"But that is unfair, the city lets no contracts."

"Please, Mr. Sessions, don't blame me if it's unfair to you. Why didn't you say so when you answered the question at the Forum, instead of giving the answer you gave. I merely have taken your own line of reasoning and commented on it."

"I did not have time to think, when I answered the question, that's why."

"In that case, don't blame me and call me prejudiced because I followed your own reply, kick yourself. You are in politics."

U. S. Treasury Owns Not Gold

FRED—I read where a 65 years old man landed in jail because he saved his money in a milk can and did not take it to the bank. How can that be?

DAVID—He saved his money in gold coin in an old milk can under his house and when the police found out about it, they locked him up.

FRED—But was that his money?

DAD—Yes, it was his own.

FRED—But how can they arrest a man for that?

DAD—That's the law.

DAVID—You see, Fred, gold must be turned over to the banks who send it to Fort Knox for safe keeping and anybody who keeps gold at home is sent to jail.

FRED—Who owns the gold at Fort Knox?

DAD—The Federal Reserve Banks own it. They are a branch of the International Bankers because they are a private concern. The federal treasury does not own the gold.

DAVID—So the law takes away the gold from American citizens to give it to the International Bankers.

DAD—That's the actual effect of the law.

Labor Racket

Everything but the Goosestep

(Over K G B, Wednesday, 8 p. m., Sept. 3)

FRED—What do you think of the Labor Day Parade, dad?

DAD—They had everything but the goosestep.

DAVID—What do you mean?

DAD—That's the way Hitler took over Germany. He had his brown shirts march in front of President Hindenburg who was so impressed with the parade, he made Hitler Reich Chancellor and after that Hitler took over Germany. And in San Diego the various labor unions forced their members to march in the parade or pay from $5 to $50 fines. So they had everything but the goosestep. You did not see any independent unions in that parade or any free American workers who are not affiliated with any of the unions? Those people in the parade did not represent the unregimented American Labor, but only the regimented unions to whom the members must pay dues, whether they want to or not, or else they lose their jobs.

DAVID—But President Roosevelt said that labor is free in the U. S.

DAD—And Walter D. Fuller, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, came right back by stating that the Wagner Act has made slaves of all American workers who refuse to belong to a labor union and that the Wagner act should be amended to impose the same obligations and requirements upon labor organizations as upon employers.

DAVID—Does it not do that?

DAD—No David.

DAVID—Then it violates the Constitution.

DAD—It certainly does.

"OBVIOUSLY A PSEUDONYM"

The methods of Communism are the methods of treachery, boring from within. If the Communists can disguise themselves as THE Americans and get control of the federal machinery of government, naturally, then, all who stand up for the U. S. Constitution and the tradition and ideals of the republic, can be branded un-American, enemies of the "state", can be first held up to scorn and ridicule and finally jailed, legally. This is exactly what is going on in these U. S. A.

And to disguise itself even nicer, Communism in these U. S. A. of America is not showing itself openly but enters as a "persecuted" race of people who love mankind but are always misunderstood, robbed and downtrodden. Would Americans, please, prove their idealism, their liberalism, by placing these persecuted people in the places of power where they could command the full resources of the 48 states to wipe the earth clear of their persecutors.

This is not a nightmare invention of mine, but the statement of fact of what has already happened in the U. S. A. and is continuing in dreadfully fast sequence. Only they are not called Communists, they are called New Dealers, and they are not all Russian born, but come from every corner of the earth where treachery, the doctrine of "the end justifies the means", is the weapon of the "smart" people.

First, We Need Americans

Before we can place America First, we must have the Americans first. The notion is being inculcated that he is not an American who does not sacrifice his own for British Imperialism. That he is un-American who does not propose to turn over his government to the Ickes and Cohens with their Frankfurters. That anyone who dares open his mouth in criticism of this alienization of America is THE enemy who must be silenced to "win the war." And what is the war about? The war is on to place this alien race in control of the world.

It is obvious, then, that one cannot place America First, as long as one places the alien warmongers first in key positions in public office, in finance, in UNION NOW church committees where the very Christian "religion" is perverted to promote war. Look at the "Christian Scientists."

But while the war mongers with their chest of gold and their control of the treasury are able to buy all the propagandists they need, there are a few men and women in America who cannot be bought. They look upon America, and the thought of being American, as a divine gift for which they are accountable to God first and not to the fellows who have wedged themselves in the key-positions of American social institutions. They are fearless, incorruptible and miracle of miracles, they survive and carry on their work in spite of persecution.

Is C. Leon de Aryan a Living Person?

Of course you people in San Diego are going to laugh. But the fact stands that for three years already a group of warmongers of the alien tribe have spread the message around that there is no such individual as C. Leon de Aryan in San Diego, editing THE BROOM. When they are hit squarely between the eyes by the undeniable truths which the BROOM brings out week after week, their defense is: a denial of the existence of that fellow C. Leon de Aryan. It's rich, isn't it?.

In the Aug. 16 issue of U. S. WEEK, published every Saturday at 4400 N. Port Washington Rd., Milwaukee, Wisc.—appears on page 15 the following comment:

"Albert Maltz, prominent Jewish playwright and author, in an article published in the May SURVEY, calls his people to attention. The attempt to create an assumption of war-guilt on the part of the Jews, he says, is gaining immense headway. He quotes an article in THE BROOM by C. Leon de Aryan (obviously a pseudonym) which ends upon a vicious note neatly combining the theme of the forged PROTOCOLS OF ZION and the levying of war-guilt.. Writes de Aryan:

" '. . . . . The landed aristocracy of England has joined hands with the Jewish Cahilla and both are waging a war upon the world's liberty. Both are exploiters, treacherous and murderous. The Jewish Cahilla . . . conspirators for world domination by Zion, figure they can also extirpate the Gentile aristocracy, the feudal landlords in Germany, England and the large landholders, insurance companies, etc, in the U. S. if they can get the German feudalists to battle the English feuders.'

"There is no way of determining just how much printed material such as the de Aryan piece above has been distributed in the United States since the war began . . . . ."

Meeting Rush Holt in San Diego

When the former senator from West Virginia came to Roosevelt Junior High auditorium last Friday night to address the America First Committee, I happened to meet him in the hallway before he went on the platform. "Take a copy of THE BROOM, you might not get a chance to read one later", with these words I handed him the current copy without introducing myself. He took it and was turning around to go his way when somebody accosted me saying: "Mr. de Aryan, I want to talk with you". At the sound of my name Holt turned around exclaiming, "so you are de Aryan"; we both went about our business. I had not expected him to have heard about me as a definite individual worth noting but evidently he had heard about me.

During his speech from the platform Holt admonished the audience not to sing that "mongrel song God Bless America" but to sing the real American song, the Star Spangled Banner. Perhaps he was told how I not only protested the singing of God Bless America in place of the Star Spangled Banner at the first public meeting of the America First group at the Lincoln School, but insisted that the group did not go home till they closed the meeting with the Star Spangled Banner. Of course, that makes me a "radical" and an anti-Semite, but I am rather proud of doing it and shall continue to do it.. If that's what it takes to defend America, that's what it takes.

'Freedom of the Seas' for Allies

BERLIN—Germany rejected all responsibility for feeding the populations of Nazi-occupied countries and called upon the United States and Great Britain to do so. Under international law, a Wilhelmstrasse spokesman informed the press, Germany's only duty in France, Holland, Belgium and other occupied territories is to maintain order.

"England and a certain influential power across the Atlantic must accept the obligation and responsibility of getting the people fed," he added.

The populations of occupied countries, the spokesman continued, have the legal right to draw food supplies from the outside. Freedom of the seas, he said, under international law means that Russians, French, Belgians and other inhabitants of occupied countries have the right to import essential food supplies unhindered.

Declared a legal paper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, by Superior Court order, January 15, 1932.

Lawlessness in Washington

By Hubert H. Heath

HOT SPRINGS, New Mex.,—Every attorney worthy of the name knows that our Federal government possesses no legal powers whatever except such powers as were definitely delegated to it, and that all powers not so delegated to the Federal government were just as strictly and specifically denied to it and reserved to the States and to the people.

In as much as Congress is composed of about 80% lawyers we are forced to assume that at least 80% of those who voted for the Lend-Lease bill were coldly deliberate perjurers, knowing full well that they were violating their oaths of office.

No power was ever delegated to anyone by the Constitution to lend or give public funds or taxpayer's property to any foreign government under any circumstances or conditions.

This official lawlessness is calculated, and we are fully persuaded, intended to bankrupt our nation, the public debt lawlessly created, is destined to destroy private ownership and has well nigh accomplished that purpose.

For the vast public debt (apparently now above 100 billions) our people have received not one thin dime's worth of anything they might not have had without any such debt.

Nearly 20 years ago we pointed out that the League of Nations was a world government and such a government could never hope to stand unless the masses of the earth were reduced to an equal level. That is being done by the Nude Eel in power at Washington (by the grace of our gangster political machines.)

The Federal Union and Union Now racket is the same old invisible world government at work through its stooges. Only the involvement of America is now needed to accomplish what these damned souls have sought to do from the day our government was founded.

If it is true, as alleged in the public press, that the southern Rosenvelts took an oath of allegiance to George the Third and that later Clinton Rosenvelt attempted to promote a dictatorship to replace the representative system, we should not trust anyone of such breed..

I constantly challenge defenders of FDR to show where he, the greatest promiser our nation has produced, has ever fulfilled a single political promise in full.

The single thing I've had offered in reply is that he DID bring back liquor but that did not fulfill even that promise for the promise was "To prevent the return of the old saloon, to promote true temperance, and to restore prosperity with the revenue derived from it."

The man's word is worthless. His methods are by indirection and duplicity. He cloaks his failure to keep promises with the most superb showmanship, making the dumbklucks forget all about what he had pledged before.

His contempt for the Constitution was quite clearly stated by himself. His contempt for the rank and file of voters is as clearly shown by his appointment of those rejected by the voters to better jobs.

His contempt for the intelligence of the man in the street was shown by his statement "By what men DO rather than by what they SAY must the sincerity of their motives be measured."

That the public was insufficiently intelligent to measure what HE says by what he DOES is the implication. Perhaps that is true of many —but not all—by a lot.

What he says always leads directly opposite to what he does. Yet, were it not for the invisible government behind the scenes the case would be much brighter.

It is the man who writes the lines not the Master Showman who delivers them that we need to watch.

Willkie, Professional Liar

FRED—Dad, is it true that Rush Holt said at the Roosevelt High auditorium last Friday night about Willkie that "any man who would lie in a political campaign would lie after a campaign"?

DAD—Yes, Fred, that's what former Senator Holt said. I heard him say it and I am sure he is right.

FRED—Then why is Willkie going to represent the Movie Industry at the senate investigation?

DAD—Because they need an experienced man who has had lots of practice. Willkie is a lawyer and is for hire.

DAVID—What is it that Mr. Holt said about the treasurer of the National Casket Company?

DAD—He merely explained why Mr. Fred McKee, of the city of Pittsburgh, was so interested in getting this country into war. You see McKee is treasurer of the Committee to defend America by aiding the Allies. He pays out the money for the propaganda and at the same time he is the treasurer for the National Casket Company.

The War in Russia

Hitler in the Hornet's Nest

In last week's issue of the BROOM, on page 2, we quoted Ferdinand C. M. Jahn, United Press Staff Correspondent, who states that the German occupation of Bessarabia and the Ukraine means the annihilation of at least 2 million Jews. "The Jews, with their pronounced racial characteristics cannot pass themselves off as 'Aryans'. The rank and file of South Russian and Rumanian Jews, especially the elder generation, are pious, fatalistic and apathetic. . . . . From the younger Jews, however, come a large percentage of revolutionaries and terrorists. This has been true since Tsarist days. . . . . Such Jews doubtless will form an important element in a savage subterranean war against the Germans in which no quarter is given."

In these few words Jahn recites the tragedy of the Jewish race the world over. "The rank and file of . . . . Jews, especially the elder generation, are pious, fatalistic and apathetic. . . . . From the younger Jews, however, come a larger percentage of revolutionaries and terrorists."

Kindly memorize this statement and you know the whole history of the Jewish race and why they, in turn, have been terrorized by murderous pogroms.

The Ashkenazis 500 Miles Belt

The average American who has not lived in the Jewish belt in Europe has no idea of the nature of the Jew in his own habitat.. I have lived with the Jew in Palestine, Egypt, Syria and the Ashkenazi belt, as well as with the American born Jew. I neither hate them, nor fear them. I know them. They are the most tragic and pitiful creatures on God's green earth, as the MASTER prayed for them: "Father forgive them for they know not what they are doing." And since the MASTER forgave them, pleading ignorance for them and their tools (the German mercenaries who executed the crucifixion) we must not let hate get the better of us. Let's keep our better side up.

There is a belt 500 miles wide, more or less, that runs along the old frontier of Germany and Russia, as it was in 1910, following the frontier with old Austria and Rumania of that date. Take this old Russian frontier line and block off a belt of 250 miles on each side of the line, from the Baltic to the Black Sea and you have the Jewish Ashkenazis habitat. "The Jews with their pronounced racial characteristics cannot pass themselves as 'Aryans', " says Jahn. The reason for it is that those Jews are NOT whites, or Caucasians, but Asiatics and Mongolian...

Jesus gave their ancestry in John, 8, verse 39 "If ye were Abraham's seed, ye would do the works of Abraham." Verse 44: "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and standeth not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof."

And Jahn confirms it: "From the younger Jews, however, come a large percentage of revolutionaries and terrorists." And two weeks ago we quoted the New York Sun showing that the "V" symbol is the old Jewish symbol of these terrorists and murderers.

The world is filled with this tragic condition of pious, fatalistic and apathetic Jews on one hand, and murderers, terrorists, subservises, treacherous creatures of the devil himself. Our heart goes out to those we would like to help among them, but they are apathetic, while the more active ones are treacherous and subversive They are the world's active Communists, borers from within, saboteurs and murderers. From their ranks come the atheistic Jews who today are the world bankers and have instigated the present massacre in Europe and captured America without a single shot to finance THEIR war. Of course, they are being aided and abetted by the Sephardim branch of Jews who migrated along the north coast of Africa, intermixed with Moors, Berbers and Negroes, and came north by way of Spain and the Netherlands.

The average American does not know which way to turn. To pity and protect the harmless Jew, many of whom were his school mates and are as clean as he is, or to watch out for the terrorists, the Communists, the subversive New Dealers, the Rothschilds, the Frankfurters, Cohens, Morgenthaus and Rosenvelts to whom an oath or contract means less than nothing, who sabotage our Constitution and rob and bond our nation.

UNION NOW

America in Danger

OMAHA, Nebr., — If Jewish FDR met with part-Jew Churchill aboard the British battleship H. M.S. Prince of Wales, during the week ending 8-9-41, outside the 3-mile limit, any agreements he may have made, were as a private citizen—for FDR under such circumstances was no longer the Pres. of the USA!

Repr. Thill in 8-15-41 CONGR. RECORD reminded Congress that " . . . back in 1918 a Resolution was presented to the Congress for the purpose of permitting Pres. Wilson to leave the territorial confines of the USA in order that he might act officially as Pres. of the USA at the Peace Conference in Europe.. . ." But, not only was Congress not asked for such a Resolution, but newsmen of USA were excluded (altho Britishers were aboard, thus scooping US press), Secy of Navy Knox even lying that FDR was on a newsless vacation!

Repr. Woodruff in 8-15-41 CR fearlessly comments: " . . Of course, no one in Washington who knows his way around believes that this weak paraphrase of Wilson (8 of Woodrow Wilson's 14 points released as being outcome of FDR-Churchill meeting) by any means told the real story of what transpired on board the warship. . . The real details will come, as they always do, not frankly from the White House. . , but bluntly from London . . . Already the Associated Press dispatches from London said 'British feel U.S. has joined united front (Communist terminology)'. And then came the first revelation of this dramatic secret conference at sea which was not contained in Mr. Roosevelt's statement or in Mr. Atlee's broadcast. Here it is: 'Four supreme commitments to the world—to help reconstruct post-war Europe, to support the British and Russians on every front, to aid in stripping aggressor nations of their weapons, and to jointly police the world after the war is over, "altho all nations, including Germany, would be allowed to determine their own form of govt"—were made in the joint declaration of Pres. Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill, informed London comment held today. . ., . ."

Repr. Burdick asked: "In view of fact that we have not yet declared war upon the enemies of Great Britain, does the gentleman (Repr. Woodruff) believe the President has any constitutional power to commit this country in aid of the destruction of any nation on earth?" And Woodruff replied: "He (FDR) has no such constitutional power whatever. ."

All this bolsters, not only cause for impeachment of FDR and all that can be thru that tactic, but also our insistent claims that as soon as USA comes under dictatorship, the world will be divided into 3 major economic-political-military spheres, dominated by Organized Jewry-Intl. Finance thru dictators at Berlin, London and Washington. Note the "sucker" bait-promise that "all nations . . to determine their own form of govt". Proclaimed need, after war, for dictatorships to continue will be even greater than during the war, but there will be fewer dictators—concentration of power is the rule today!

North American Strike

At North American Aviation Co. the workmen getting 50c an hour ($20 a week) asked the same rate of pay which other big airplane companies have granted, sometimes after strikes.

The press did not inform the public that North American made a profit of $7,090,333 in 1940, which was a profit of $855 on the labor of each workman. It had $200,000,000 worth of orders.

Conscription vs. Amendment XIII.

Ernst Goerner Arrested by FBI on Charges of Counseling Resistance to Conscription Act

MILWAUKEE,—Ernst Goerner, 62, of 627 E. State st., was arrested by special agents of the federal bureau of investigation (FBI). He is charged with violating a section of the selective service act that prohibits anyone from knowingly "counseling, aiding or abetting" evasion of the act. The arrest was said to be the first of its kind..

Arraigned before United States Commissioner Floyd E. Jenkins, who had issued the warrant for his arrest, Goerner came to the hearing, clad in white trousers, a sport shirt and two toned white summer shoes.

Not Guilty, He Says

Jenkins asked him whether he was guilty.

"Of course not," Goerner replied. "My wife knows more about this than I do. She'll be my witness."

"We have had cases of violation of the selective service act but none as serious as this one," said E. J. Koelzer, an assistant United States district attorney. "The bond in this case should be at least $5,000, perhaps $10,000."

"I was just interpreting the Constitution," Goerner said, referring to a single sheet pamphlet mimeographed on both sides, which was seized by the FBI agents in Goerner's home and a copy of which was submitted at the hearing by Koelzer. I know more about the Constitution than you do, Mr. Koelzer."

"What this man has done amounts to treason and sedition," Koelzer said. "In Europe he would be shot for what he has done."

Goerner mumbled something in reply and then, raising his voice, said: "Don't get excited."

Bond Set at $5,000

Bond was fixed at $5,000 by Jenkins. Goerner sought to sign his own bond but Jenkins told him it could not be done. Unable to raise the bond immediately, Goerner was returned to the county jail.

According to Harvey T. O'Connor, agent in charge of the Milwaukee FBI office, a quantity of literature, some of it attacking the selective service act, was seized at Goerner's home. In the city directory Goerner is listed as a publisher. His alleged pro-German sympathies led to a raid on his home during the World war by federal department of justice agents. A subsequent move to cancel Goerner's citizenship, acquired in 1914, failed in the federal court.

"Refuse to Register"

According to O'Connor, the single mimeograph sheet bore on its first page the heading, "We Refuse to Register." It carried at the end, O'Connor said, the name, "Ernst Goerner, P. O. Box 1824." O'Connor said dates on the sheet indicated the sheet was first issued in September, 1939, and reissued June 12, 1940, and Sept. 22, 1940. The selective service act went into effect Sept. 16, 1940.

Copies of the mimeograph broadside, O'Connor said, had been mailed to the Milwaukee FBI office by persons complaining of Goerner's activities. O'Connor said that copies of it had fallen into the hands of persons whose age made them eligible for selective service.

Denies Conscription Legal

According to O'Connor, who described Goerner as a "prolific writer." one passage in the mimeograph in question read as follows:

"The Constitution does not provide for conscription and explicitly forbids involuntary servitude in any form, and therefore conscription cannot be justly and legally enforced.

"It is apparent therefrom that neither land, naval or aviation forces can be organized by any other method than voluntary enlistment.

"Laws enacted by congress need not be obeyed if their provisions are contrary to the spirit and wording of the Constitution of the United States, as our first allegiance is to our Constitution and NOT to the congress or to the president."

"Act of Patriotism"

In another passage captioned "We Refuse," the mimeograph went on to state:

"Any refusal to serve in the armed forces, or any effort to evade an anticonstitutional draft law is not a crime, not an act of cowardice or a dodging of duty, or a desertion, but solely is an act of courageous patriotism.

"Only ignorants and cowards submit to coercive acts of immoral party politics, but informed patriotic citizenry stands by the Constitution of the United States."

One part of the mimeographed sheet, according to O'Connor, was devoted to an attack on "international Jewry."

"We fight if our own American soil is being invaded but we shall refuse to be placed on ships to fight somewhere in foreign waters or territories," the mimeograph read.

It closed with this appeal:

"American mothers!—the happiness of your family, the well being of your sons and the well being and future of our United States rests with you."

Home Raided in War

Goerner was born Nov. 28, 1878, at Waerta-Sauer, Germany, and came to this country Apr. 6, 1902. He became a citizen by naturalization proceedings on Sept. 15, 1914, in the circuit court here. The department of justice raid on his home—he was living then on N. Van Buren st., not far from his present two story frame home—took place Aug. 31, 1918.

The bureau of immigration moved on Nov. 13, 1918, two days after the armistice ending the World war, to have Goerner's certificate of citizenship canceled. The bureau, basing its case on the literature seized in Goerner's home, charged that he never had intended to renounce allegiance and fidelity to Wilhelm II, emperor of Germany, and had not intended to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States, two pledges of his citizenship oath.

The case came before the late Federal Judge F. A. Geiger on June 23, 1919, and the government's petition was dismissed "for lack of equity."

In May, 1938, pickets of the Citizens' Committee Against Nazi Activities marched around Goerner's home for two hours, protesting against his activities.

The FBI agents said they left behind in their raid Friday night a mimeograph machine and a small printing press.

Good THOUGHT

Good WORD — Good DEED

THE MAZDAZNAN PHILOSOPHY

By Dr. O. Z. Ha'nish

Above all things, envy not your neighbor, as thru envy you lose hold upon yourself and with it make enemies. Rejoice in the success of others and many a good slice will come your way. If you see in your contemporary superior qualities, assist him to gain his ends, as in lines of superiority patent with you he will exchange favors, thus where there would have been but one gaining success now both will enjoy the fruits of peace and agreement. If you fail to gain a certain position you have so strenuously labored for, remember that a better place is waiting for you. Direct your thought in that direction and you will learn that a loss simply means the pointing out of a way to greater success.

If you will be true to your trust you shall day by day realize with greater emphasis the meaning of:

"In God We Trust."

In conclusion Mazdaznan desires to call attention to the fact that Life is not in vain, as every entity, every intelligence, whatever its form, condition or environment, has a great mission to perform on this earth; a mission no less than divine in nature and Infinite in destiny, as the coming of man to earth is by no means a mere chance or freak of Nature, but in consequence of well-devised laws and intelligently arranged order.. This being the case, each and every man performs the part called for by the governing conditions of time and where the one ceases to do so another takes the place. Be it whatever it may be, man fills the part conducive to environments. Man is placed into position in accordance to demands made until he has learned to place himself. If satisfied with his lot, then it is because he performs his part well, while if dissatisfied it is because he has ideals higher than his capacity is able to materialize. Dissatisfaction, of course, becomes ruinous not only to the individual, but to all the members of society in sympathy with such a deplorable state. The only remedy for dissatisfaction is better information of the laws of Life and education in lines conducive to the welfare of the being. Man needs to consider himself from the standpoint of Infinity and cease to limit his being to the span of existence between birth and death.

Bear in mind that you are a factor in Life; remember you are of God, consequently eternal, while the consciousness of this phenomenal world is merely a span to add to your glory and the perpetuity of the Life to be.

Broaden your senses to a blend common to each other and harmonious to the mind.

DON'T TELL THE DOCTOR

When U go to a doctor's office for advice, if U want to know what the doctor himself thinks about your "case," don't tell him all U think U know about it. Let the doctor tell U what he thinks from his observation and experience.

Dr. Geo. Starr White

The average doctor is liable to be led to believe what U tell him is the truth. U think it is the truth, or U would not tell it to the doctor, whom U are paying for professional advice.

U may have read in the almanac, or patent-medicine advertisement certain symptoms, and then got it into your mind that those were the same as yours. Then U go to the doctor and tell him what U "have." In this manner U throw him off the track of doing U the most good.

Every experienced doctor should know how to tell what the matter is by examination. He may not be able to tell you what is in your mind; but he can tell what he finds and judge from those findings.

One day a woman came to me saying she had an " ulcer of the stomach." She said she had been told by many of the "best diagnosticians" that she had it, so she was sure it was ulcer of the stomach. She said she told all of them she knew it was ulcer of the stomach.

I made a physical examination and found the ulcer in the pit of her navel. A few treatments cured that and she was well.

Don't tell the doctor what U think U have!

SHAW TURNS UP NOSE AT HONOR MEAL

"How Horrible," He Says, "All Those Animals and Birds and Fishes!"

NEW YORK—A stern vegetarian gesture was the reaction of George Bernard Shaw to a dinner given in his honor by the Town Hall Club.

Despite the Irish dramatist's persistent refusal to visit America, Archibald Henderson, biographer of the playwright and toastmaster at the dinner, invited him to attend. He received the following reply:

"How horrible.

"I am to be made the pretext for killing all those wretched animals and birds and fishes!

"Thank you for nothing.

"Now if it were to be a fast instead of a feast; say a solemn three days' abstention from corpses in my honor, I could at least pretend to believe that I am disinterested.

"Blood sacrifices are not in my line."

Three hundred persons attended.

F B I — WHAT FOR ?

I understand that if you write to Mr. Roosevelt without an invitation that you are called to entertain the FBI. By the way, what does FBI stand for? Somebody said it was Ferret Boys for Israel, then somebody else said it las Feed Bolshevist Investigators. They are an awful nice crowd of young men who show you a deck of cards when they investigate you, and the deck is stacked. I heard an America-Firster say so. —Roll Call.

Printer's Note—I contend that FBI stands for Franklin's beloved Israel! The Broom editor says it stands for Franklin's Bad Intentions. So take your pick—at best its a bunch of hooey and another drain on the American citizen's terribly strained pocketbook.

NAVY BOMBERS

Thus far, according to Rear Admiral John H. Towers, the operating cost of a navy bomber on neutralty patrol has been $22.71 an hour, a sum which does not include the cost of overhauling and depreciation. Horeover, the cost is rising because new-model bombers require a higher quality, more expensive kind of gasoline than the older ones.

CAT WINS IN BATTLE FOR PHONE'S REMOVAL

PORTLAND, Ore.,—Blinky, a cat owned by Stanley Peterson, won his battle with the telephone.

Peterson had to have his phone moved out of the basement where Blinky sleeps. Every time the phone rang, Blinky would knock it over so the receiver fell off the hook, and go back to bed.

Cruel Vivisection

REPORT ON NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY MEDICAL SCHOOL

On July 3, 1941, I visited the Northwestern University Medical School at 303 East Chicago avenue, Chicago. Dogs and rats seemed to be the animals most in use there. I did not notice any distress among the rats. I saw in the neighborhood of 300 dogs. They were housed in tiers of small cages with cement floors in rooms that were for the most part ill ventilated.

About a third of the total number of dogs I saw had already been submitted to one or more operations, or were undergoing some form of experiment. Most of them appeared ill and listless. Some lay bandaged; others showed exposed wounds.. I saw several debarked dogs whose vocal cords had been cut. The fear and despair I saw in so many canine eyes was heart-breaking.

Unless some medical student happens to take pity on him, a dog undergoing a long experiment, must lie week after week in his small cage, often with a painful wound, without ever having an opportunity to breathe fresh air.

I witnessed the conclusion of one experiment at Northwestern. While walking down a corridor on the fifth floor, I saw a big, dog, part collie, dash out of an open door and down the hallway in front of me, pursued by three young "men in white". I went into the room they had vacated. There, on an operating table, I saw a thin police dog spread-eagled on a board. His legs were tied and his mouth heavily gagged. All the flesh was stripped from his throat. It looked like something you would see in a butcher shop.

At first glance I assumed the animal was dead, or at least under a general anaesthetic from which he would not be allowed to regain consciousness. Then I saw his body was moving. He was struggling as much as his bonds would permit. His eyes were open and the dilated pupils rolled back and forth. Never before have I seen such a look of anguish.

I begged the three young men who had been "working" on the dog to put him out of his suffering, but was told, "no, we're going to sew him up and use him again."

Canadian War Wages

Lowest rank Canadian draftees receive roughly $39 a month; same rank in U.S. $21 a month, first class private $30. The Canadian married men, i. e., a volunteer, has $35 paid his wife and is allowed $12 each for two children under 16, about $98 a month or $25 a week.. Family allowances are granted only to U.S. men of higher ratings whose salaries are such the service is sometimes a profitable venture, while families of men in lower ranks undergo severe hardships. LaFollette's Progressive comments: "All in all the Canadian draft would seem to indicate Canada is less enthusiastic about carrying on a war she is already in than the U.S. government is about getting into a war the people do not want."

Driver's Seat

"Many Americans assume Mr. Roosevelt holds the whip hand and since enactment of the Lease-Lend Law our government is in the driver's seat; that the U.S. can dictate to Britain. On the contrary, Britain can dictate to the Roosevelt Administration.

"Unless I am greatly mistaken the British understand better than Mr. Roosevelt the situation he is in. They know the New Deal domestic program collapsed in 1937 and that he himself abandoned it as a dead cat in 1938."

—Philip F. LaFollette.

In his booklet, "Oil and Germs of War," Prof. Scott Nearing states, quoting a man who had studied Oil conditions for ten years: "Whoever controls the oil supplies of the world will control the world economically and politically, and the whole world is being plunged into chaos over a struggle for this control."

Communists Direct Underground Immigration

NEW YORK.—One of the corporations most active in arranging for refugees to enter Cuba, as a stepping stone to immigration into the United States, has a close tie-up to the Russian government. This is the Compass Resettlement Co., Inc., an affiliate of two companies which, through their principals, are allied closely to two official Soviet agencies registered with the state department.

The concern named is affiliated with the Compass Travel Bureau of 55 West 42nd st. and the Compass Package Service of the same address.. The latter is in the business of sending food packages to the Soviet from friends and admirers here. All three are allied with Intourist, Moscow's official travel agency, which among other pre-war activities handled arrangements for propaganda tours of the U.S.S.R., and with Amtorg, Stalin's exclusive trading agency here.

The type of service rendered to refugees by this and other agencies was described by this column August 16. It was pointed out that they provide the bond required by the Cuban government and, for fees, perform other services which enable aspirants to enter the U.S. legally much quicker than through routine channels. One instance was cited in which $1200 was paid to an agency in connection with the Cuban entry of three adults and three children. That was the Compass corporation.. —S. Burton Heath.

Harry Bridges—A Jew

"On the Honor Roll for clear thinking and courageous action go: Rep. Samuel Dickstein, Rep. M. Michael Edelstein and Rep. Emmanuel Celler . . . The three Jewish Congressmen were part of the dauntless little group of 42 who braved criticism to vote against the Allen bill to deport Harry Bridges, the West Coast CIO Maritime leader . . Unable to prevent the bill from coming out of the Immigration Commttee of which he is chairman, Rep. Dickstein did the next best thing, voted against it on the floor. Representatives Edelstein and Celler did the same. But the issue is not Harry Bridges. There are also some 4,000,000 Jews in this country whose popularity is ever a moot question . . . Yesterday it was Harry Bridges whom Congress deemed undesirable. Tomorrow it could be any minority member, any Jew—Albert Einstein possibly . . . American Jewry cannot sit by smugly while Harry Bridges is being deported." —Editorial in the American Hebrew for July 19, 1940.

QUIT SMOKES, DRINKS, CHIANG URGES ARMY

CHUNGKING—General Chiang Kaishek is attempting to raise the living habits of his entire army to health standards in order to assure ultimate victory for China!

Whole brown rice has been steadily displacing the white in rations, and now the general has issued 10 "commandments" in which health ideals are clearly in evidence

"Thou shalt not smoke" says the 7th, and this bans tobacco as well as opium. "Thou shalt not drink wine" decrees the 8th, hitting all alcohol. The other prohibitions are against money-craving, fear of death, self-exaltation, egomania, laziness, gambling, borrowing, lies.

Critics who have considered China's army backward concede that General Chiang's ideals are more enlightened than those of any army that encourages tobacco and winks at alcohol. Improved discipline is expected, and better health for officers and men.

3 TRIED IN SERUM KILLINGS

Berne, Switzerland—The director of the Bacteriological Institute of Fribourg, his aide and a doctor, were brought before the Fribourg Court of Assizes today, charged with poisoning through vaccination of eleven children in Montrevers School in Fribourg, Switzerland. The defendants are accused of involuntary homicide.

On Jan. 8, 1940, a tube of diphtheria serum was sent from the Bacteriological Institute and used at the school instead of anti-diphtheria serum. Six children had died before the mistake was discovered. Only four of the fifteen vaccinated children were saved.

How It All Started

The rise of Adolph Hitler to power dates from the early part of 1931. Up to that time the efforts of Ludendorf and Hitler to gain power in Germany had been fruitless. In March 1931 Germany and Austria reached an agreement to form a customs union, and invited their neighbors to join in such a Zollverein. It might have been the nucleus for a United States of Europe . . . Britain was not averse to the proposal, but France and Czechoslovakia interposed their peremptory veto in the League of Nations and the proposal was dropped. Then Germany began to turn to Hitler. Two years later, in 1933, he won the general election and became Chancellor of Germany. France and Czechoslovakia therefore bear a heavy responsibility for the rise of Hitler to power, for Germany seems to have then and there decided that Hitler was right in asserting that conciliation would get her nowhere and that no concessions from the Treaty of Verseilles would be secured until Germany became strong enough to take them.

Roosevelt Accused Of Hitler Tactics

WAPAKONETA, O., — The administration of President Roosevelt stood accused of attempting "the same tactics used by Hitler in the invasion of Poland," in an address before an America First rally by Illinois Congressman William G. Stratton.

"The attempt of the present administration to enter the war without the formality of a declaration represents the same tactics used by Hitler in the invasion of Poland," Stratton declared. "We were never intended by our forefathers to accept the responsibility of policing the world. . We no longer are a peaceful nation."

Patriotism Backfires

FRED—I saw a picture in the paper showing the Boarding House Owners Association going up the steps of the Civic Center building with signs in their hands reading: "YESTERDAY We Were Patriots, TODAY We Are Criminals;" —and the other sign had on it: "We took the Boys Into Our Homes."—Why did they go up to the city hall with those signs?

DAVID—You should have read daddy's paper, it gives the details. Mr. de Vilbiss is the strategy chairman of the Boarding House Owners Association. He carried one of the signs and with him was Mrs. Adams, the treasurer of the association, carrying the other sign. They went up to the city council yesterday morning to protest the sudden enforcement of state laws by the health department which would put many of the boarding houses out of business.

FRED—But, David, why did the TRIBUNE last night say that C. S. de Vilbiss, and his wife, were carrying banners, if the lady with de Vilbiss is Mrs. Adams? Is de Vilbiss a Mormon?

DAVID—Oh, Fred, don't you see? It's just a mistake the Tribune made in writing the text to the picture. Mr. de Vilbiss has his own wife, he is no Mormon and no bigamist, that's Mrs. Adams who is walking with him. Besides, Mormons nowadays have only one wife, too.

FRED—Did you say one wife, or two?

DAD—Now that's enough of it!

DAVID—Dad, what did the council do about the protest?

DAD—Harley Knox, acting mayor, gave them three quarters of an hour in which speakers for the association presented their case. This is what happened. A year ago the city council, the chamber of commerce and many civic clubs came out with an appeal to the people of San Diego to "take the boys into their homes", the thousands of boys who had arrived to work in our defense industries, but for whom no lodgings were commercially available. The city council suspended zoning restrictions for that purpose. Now suddenly, the health department seems to have forgotten the EMERGENCY demand for boarding houses to take the boys in and lodge and feed them. The health department has sent a letter to the boarding house owners telling them to comply with the strict regulations of the State Housing Act or go out of business within two weeks. This naturally, would bankrupt many people who have remodelled their homes to accommodate many boarders, imagining that they were doing a patriotic service, as the city council asked them. Now they have formed an association to protect themselves and their boarders and creditors..

DAVID—I know all that, Iread it in your paper, what I asked you was what did the city council do about the protest?

DAD—The city council asked the city attorney for a ruling and he explained that the state law places the authority of enforcement on the shoulders of the health department and that the city council can do nothing about it.

FRED—But does the health department enforce the law in those trailer camps run by the federal government where a family of four people live, eat and sleep in a trailer that has not one fourth of the space which the boarding houses give to their boarders?

DAD—That's the very question I put to Ed Beale, city director of housing and sanitation, and he said that the federal camps violate the state law and that Beale can't stop them.

DAVID—If Mr. Beale and Dr. Lesem, his boss, are not afraid that those trailers are a menace to health and morals, merely because it's a federal camp, why are they so hard on private San Diego citizens who responded to the request of the city council to take the boys into their homes?

DAD—That's the thing that is going to be ironed out. Ed Beale asked the boarding house owners to get in touch with him and he promised to help them out so they would find means and ways of complying with the intention of the code without having to go bankrupt. I am sure the whole matter will be straightened out. The association is having a meeting right now in the House of Hospitality in Balboa Park to arrange a satisfactory way out for everybody.

Pseudonyms, Ghosts & Shivers

FRED—Daddy, are you really yourself or are you somebody else?

DAVID—What a funny thing to ask. How could he be somebody else?

FRED—I am not asking you David, I am asking dad.

DAD—What do you mean, Fred?

FRED—I read in the August 16, issue of the U. S. WEEK, on page 15, that you are a "pseudonym." I asked mother what that big word means and she said that when some people don't want anyone to know who the real author of a book or story is, they sign some other name to it.

DAD—Before I could answer your question, Fred, you would have to read to me the passage in the U. S. WEEK.

FRED—It says: "Albert Maltz, prominent Jewish playwright and author, in an article published in the May SURVEY . . . quotes an article . . . by C. Leon de Aryan (obviously a pseudonym) .."

DAD—And who wrote the comment on it in U. S. WEEK?

FRED—That article is by Wellington Roe. What do they mean, daddy by calling you "obviously a pseudonym"?

DAD—The U. S. WEEK and the SURVEY are propaganda periodicals. And their writers judge me by their own standards, obviously. When writing propaganda stuff, many people are ashamed to sign their own names to the lies and absurd distortions of the truth which are dished out to the gullible public, so for one reason or another they sign a fake name. But I don't have to do that because I don't say things which I cannot substantiate as to the truth. I always accept the full responsibility before the public and before the law by giving my full and correct name.

DAVID—The propagandists use ghost writers don't they?

FRED—How can ghosts write? You mean they use the ouija board?

DAVID—Now who is butting in when I ask dad a question?

DAD—Yes, David. Those socalled big shots use ghost writers all the time.

FRED—But daddy, how can ghosts write?

DAD—A ghost writer is not the spirit of a dead person, but is a term used in the professional world of writers meaning that somebody with brains wrote a speech for some other person who gets the credit for it. They do that all the time with political speeches.

DAVID—Like Mr. Rosenman, the supreme court judge of New York, who writes so many of Mr. Roosevelt's speeches?

FRED—How do you know?

DAVID—That's no secret. After every speech, in a day or two the national columnists, like Boake Carter, or Paul Mallon, or Ray Tucker come out in their reports and tell who wrote the speech.

FRED—So you are not somebody else, not a pseudonym, as they said in U. S. WEEK. But, dad, why do they start such stories about you? Why don't they find out the truth before they print such things?

DAD—Because those people write for propaganda, they imagine everybody else is writing just for the money the propaganda people pay.

DAVID—Some people claim that Shakespeare never existed but was only a myth and I have read where some professors say that there was no such individual as Jesus Christ, but that it is all a myth, too.

DAD—Yes, David, you are right about that. Shakespeare and Jesus have told many a bitter truth which strikes home even today and so the people who don't like that are trying to belittle them by saying that they never existed.

DAVID—You mean, as in a nightmare, when they get the shivers that they were found out, they deny the existence of the truth and of the men who said it..

DAD—It's something like that. You can imagine how it must have hit them straight home since already they are saying that there is no such individual, that C. Leon de Aryan is just a phantom, a pseudonym.

FRED—But people in San Diego know that you are real.

DAVID—Yes, Fred, but those propaganda periodicals which deny daddy's existence, circulate very little in San Diego and their readers are fooled. Anyway, dad, you must be an important person when they already come out with denials of your reality in their propaganda literature. I see where Wendell Willkie is going to represent the Movie Industry at the senate inquiry into film propaganda.

Red World Seen as Russian Aim

The London press today blazed with reports of the accusation made in the Trade Union Congress at Edinburgh that Col. J. T. C. Moore-Brabazon, British minister of aircraft production, had expressed the hope that the German and Russian armies would "exterminate each other" and leave Britain the dominating power in Europe.

Russia is interested in the expansion of Communism rather than in territorial gains. That always has been the great aim of the Bolshevists—to extend Communism throughout the world. A Europe shattered by war and hunger and disease, as it now bids fair to be, would provide the sort of soil Moscow seeks for the planting of the seeds of Communism.

British Secret Service Report 1919

(Concluded)

America's Day

I would suggest that the approaching July fourth be robbed of its insult to us and its power to obstruct our purpose, by a pompous celebration in England. It might be called America's Day, and its keynote might be "Get Together." The President might be given credit for the idea. The London dailies might be instructed as to their editorial and news policy on that day. There could be a special American Day issue of the London Times to which Her Majesty, the Queen, and Mrs. Wilson, Sir James Gerard, Sir John Pershing, Sir William Sims, and other American Knights might contribute. Mr. Taft might write an article to show that the Carnegie League to Enforce Peace —which is looked upon here as a domestic organization—is the parent body of the League of Nations. Mr. Wickersham and our other lawyers could show what American liberty owes to the English Legal system, Senator King and other legislators could cite from President Wilson's work on government to show that the parliamentary system is superior to the congressional, and that American legislative independence is based on our revolution of 1688. President Eliot, President Nicholas Murray Butler, and other of our professorial following might deal with what America owes to English learning. And other persons prominent here could be allowed all available space in which to instruct us in ways to repair the "errors" of the past, that England and America may go forward hand in hand to Christianize and civilize, "Americanize", the world. The result may be somewhat offensive to our people, but the British public have a genius for silently ignoring vulgarity—especially the American variety of it. Finally we staged for an early date a gigantic Imperial exhibition in Canada at Ottawa, so that the commercial advantages of citizenship in the Empire may be practically demonstrated to the lesser fry of the business world.

By these means we hope smoothly to overcome all effective opposition on the part of our colony, America, to entering the League that is the Empire. As soon as the League is functioning properly, His Majesty in response to loyal and repeated solicitation, might graciously be pleased to consent to restore to his people their ancient right to petition at the foot of the Throne; to confer the ancient rank and style of Governor-General upon our Ambassadro, that this colony may enjoy a status inferior to no other colony's; to establish the Primacy of the Metropolitan See., with the Right Rev. Dr. Manning as first Primate to appoint Mr. Elihu Root, Lord Chief Justice of the Colony and to nominate Messrs. W. H. Taft, Nicholas Murray Butler, J. P Morgan, Elizabeth Marbury, Adolph Ochs and Thomas Lamont to the colonial Privy Council; as a special mark of Royal and Imperial concession, to rename the Federal Capitol of the Colony, Georgetown, and less section jealousy be thereby excited; to grant Royal charters to the cities of Boston and Chicago, entitling them thereafter to style themselves respectively, Kingston and Guelf—concisely to bestow in time and in measure such tokens of the bounty of the Crown as the fealty of the colonists merit.

Conscious of its shortcomings, I have endeavored to outline my plan of campaign here. Its errors of strategy and tactics seem glaring in the retrospect, but they will, I hope, be considered by you in the light of the almost insuperable difficulties against which we had to contend.

Since that memorable day, September 19, 1877, on which the late Cecil Rhodes devised by will a fund "To and for the establishment, promotion and development of a secret society—the true aim of which and object of which shall be the extension of British rule throughout the world, and especially the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British Empire",—the energy and intelligence of England has not been spent in vain. It would perhaps be presumptuous of me to refer here to the admirable services rendered, not only by Lord Northcliffe and the corps of twelve thousand trained workers whom he introduced here during the year as purchasing agents under the direction of Sir Campbell Stuart; but also the Right Honorable Arthur J. Balfour, and by Lord Reading. But my report would be incomplete without a reference to Mr. Andrew Carnegie of Skibbo Castle, Sutherlandshire, and New York City. He unobtrusively assumed the mantle of the late Mr. Cecil Rhodes. Through the Carnegie Foundation, he obtained such control over the professorate of this country that even President Wilson was a suppliant for a Carnegie pension, before his people and allied gratitude placed him beyond prospective want.

The Carnegie League to Enforce Peace and its affiliate League of Small Nations are even now leading the van in our fight. In the "North American Review", June, 1893, Mr. Carnegie wrote: "Let men say what they will, I say that as surely as the Sun in the heavens once shone upon Britain and America united, so surely it is one morning to rise, to shine upon, to greet again, the reunited states — The "British-American Union."

The object of Cecil Rhodes is almost attained. The day prophesied by Mr. Carnegie is near at hand, the day when the American colonies will be in all things one with the Motherland, one and indivisible. Only the last great battle remains to be fought—the battle to compel her acceptance of the terms of the League of Nations..

I have frankly stated the difficulties which confront us, and the vital necessity of the League to the British nation.. In the hope that a statement of needs of the nation and of the world in this hour of supreme crisis may stimulate those to whom it comes and remind all who need reminder of the solemn duties of a time such as the world has never seen before, I suggest that all editors and publishers everywhere will give us prominent publication and as wide circulation as possible to "an appeal for the League". I venture to suggest also to all advertising agencies that they would perhaps render a very substantial and timely service to our country, if they would give it widespread repetition. And I hope that clergymen will not think the theme of it an unworthy or inappropriate subject of comment and homily from their pulpits. . .. . (The End)

Intimate Papers of Col. House

You have read the British Secret Service Report, in serial form, in this paper. It is the most revealing subversive document ever presented to the American public, and you owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. de Aryan, Editor of The Broom, for bringing it to your attention. It takes courage for a newspaper editor to print material such as this.

Now if you are not mad enough to do something, there isn't any American blood in your veins; you have never caught the spirit of that glorious document, the Declaration of Independence, or our Constitution with its Bill of Rights.

Spiritual law will hold you responsible for the dissemination of this knowledge. And, to make it easy for you to do, we are presenting this material all together in one volume, with other valuable matter added, making 56 pages altogether; and you may have this for 25c, or if you send $1.00 we will send you 6 copies.

The termites within the nation have eaten away the foundation of our Republic, as per this Secret Service Report; so, for God's sake, for America's sake and for your own sake, spread the news; be a Paul Revere. The enemy is not coming, he is here in our midst. It is a call to service, for all who believe in our Republican form of government. Send $1.00 and get 6 copies and pass the other 5 to your friends. Special price in lots of 100.

Don't delay. Do it NOW

We also have a few copies of The Intimate Papers of Col. House, in 2 large volumes, for $7.50; published at $10.00. Now out of print and no more copies will be obtainable. We have only 6 sets.

A Talk with Colonel House

July 4, 1938. I found Colonel House rather vigorous physically, though seventy-five years old, and mentally very alert We talked about my "difficult mission." He frankly said: "I sent two nominations to the President, yours and Nicholas Murray Butler's, but I felt that you ought to be given precedence." . . . .

He said: "You should try to ameliorate Jewish sufferings. They are clearly wrong and even terrible; but the Jews should not be allowed to dominate economic or intellectual life in Berlin as they have done for a long time."
